

The following instructions are provided in accordance with the requirements of the South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles. For further information you may contact their customer service call center 803-896-5000 .

You may only de-title your mobile home through the mail. You'll mail all documents listed below to the following address:

SCDMV
Titles and Registration
PO Box 1498
Blythewood, SC 29016-0024

To de-title a mobile home or manufactured home, you must submit the following:

The Manufactured Home Affidavit or the Retirement of Title Certificate

Title for the Mobile or Manufactured Home

This title must be the original SC title. The information (year, make, VIN and owner) on the title and the Retirement of Title Certificate must match. The information on the title must also match the information contained in DMV files. If the mobile or manufactured home is purchased new, you must apply for the title before it can be de-titled.

Lien Release

A lien release must be provided for each lien recorded on the title. If the lien is not released on the title, any attorney licensed to practice law in SC may record a Satisfaction of Lien Affidavit in the county where the home is located provided proof of payment can be provided to the county. If the mobile or manufactured home still has a lien at the time the title is retired, you must file a manufactured home lien affidavit with the clerk of court in the county where the mobile home is located. After filing the lien affidavit, it will become a lien against the real property.

Property Tax Receipt

A tax receipt indicating that the taxes for the current year have been paid. If no taxes are owed on the property, DMV will accept a statement on the county treasurer's letterhead stating that no taxes are owed.

De-Titling Fee

A $50.00 fee is required for each mobile home that is detitled.

DMV will provide written confirmation to the homeowner that the certificate of title has been retired.

Mobile or Manufactured Home Sold After Being Declared Real Property

If the title has been retired on a mobile or manufactured home and that home will be attached to real property in its new location, the owner does not need to obtain a new title. The buyer of the mobile or manufactured home must file a manufactured home severance affidavit with the register of deeds or clerk of court in the county or counties from which the manufactured home is being moved and where it is being located.

If the mobile or manufactured home will not be affixed to real property in its new location, the owner of the manufactured home must obtain a new title from the Department of Motor Vehicles.

To obtain a new title, you must provide the following:

The lien must be released or the lien holder must consent to transfer the lien to the new owner

Completed Form 400 Application for Certificate of Title/Registration

A title fee of $15.00

A stamped, clocked copy of the Manufactured Homes Severance affidavit, which has been filed in the register of deeds or clerk of courts office in the county where the mobile or manufactured home will be located

The Form 400 must reflect any liens in the order of their priority that are listed on the Manufactured Home Severance Affidavit.

An Affidavit of Security Interest of Record executed by a licensed South Carolina Attorney identifying in the order of the priority any secured party having a security interest on the real property must be included with the Manufactured Home Severance Affidavit.

A copy of the Form 400 along with the Manufactured Home Severance must also be filed in the office of the register of deeds or the clerk of court in the county where the mobile or manufactured home was formerly located.
