

Proclamation

*On a motion from Chairman Joe Dill
Members of Greenville County Council wish to recognize*

“Zero Tolerance for Litter” Month

WHEREAS, Greenville County has an abundance of natural resources, including clean air, water, miles of pristine lakes, rolling hills and scenic mountains; and

WHEREAS, littering is illegal and is a crime against nature and citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, littering is a danger not only to drivers and pedestrians on our roads, but it also harms community appearance and safety and can lead to a breakdown in the quality of life; and

WHEREAS, litter eradication depends on each one of us taking action for litter prevention, recycling, conservation and public land stewardship to create a cleaner environment and foster economic development; and

WHEREAS, the Greenville County Sheriff’s Office, the County of Greenville, Keep Greenville County Beautiful, Keep South Carolina Beautiful, Palmetto Pride, and law enforcement agencies statewide work to involve people in community improvement and to promote individual responsibility for a clean environment; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina law enforcement agencies serve to preserve the beauty of our state and prevent acts that diminish that beauty and further works to ensure safety of citizens of South Carolina,

NOW, THEREFORE, Greenville County Council does hereby proclaim the month of April 2012, as

“Zero Tolerance for Litter” Month

Signed on this the 17th day of April 2012

---

Herman G. “Butch” Kirven, Chairman
Greenville County Council

