Describe your understanding of the role of a member of the board or commission to which you are applying
Greenlink Board members are responsible for the operation of an effective, efficient transit service in the County and City of Greenville. The Board sets policies, approves budgets, and hires the Director. The board aims to provide the best service to the most citizens, particularly those who are underserved, while keeping costs to taxpayers low. The Board also seeks to connect transit with pedestrian, bicycle, automobile, and other transportation modes and facilities.
