and the survivor of them their heirs and assigns forever and the said personally unto the said John Dunklin Sullivan and Dunklin DeWitt Moore and the survivor of them their executors and administrators both the said real and personal estate in trust nevertheless for the following uses and purposes hereinafter set forth and declared to wit to permit my said daughter Mary Jane Moore to have the possession use and enjoyment of said real and personal estate including the increase of the female slaves during her natural life reserving however to the Trustees and the survivor of them the title thereto with the power of supervision and and control to be excersised whenever in their Judgment it may be necessary for the protection of said property and the benefits of the Cestui Que trusts and also full power and authority to sell or exchange all or any part of said property by and with the consent of my said daughter whenever in their discretion it shall be deemed most for the benefit of my daughter and to reinvest the proceeds of such sales in other property that would better suit my said daughter the property so purchased or received in exchange to be held by the said trustees and their survivor subject to the same power of sale and exch-ange and upon the same trusts uses and limitations as the original pro-perty is subjected to by the provisions of this Deed Furthermore the said tru-tees and their survivors are authorised and enjoined whenever in their discretion it may be necessary in order to carry fully into effect the objects of said trust to take the entire managements and control of the said property and its increase and pay my said daughter annually the rents and profits thereof to her sole and seperate use and after the death of my said daughter the said property both real and personal and its increase is so to be continued in trust for the possession use and enjoyment of such child or children as she may leave surviving her including the child or children of any deceased child who will take the portion the deceased parent would be entitled to if living but should my said daughter die without leaving any child or children, grand child or grand children in this event the said property both real and personal and its increase is likewise so to be continued in trust for the possession use and enjoyment of my sons Hewlett Sullivan Moore and Dunklin DeWitt Moore to be equally partitioned between them or the survivor of them and the child or children of the deceased brother the child or children of such deceased brother taking the share of the deceased farther though should my said daughter die without leaving any child or children, grand child or grand children or the child or children of a deceased brother but a surviving brother in that event the whole of said property both real and personal is also likewise so to be continued in trust for the sale possession use and enjoyment of such surviving brother should however my said daughter Mary Jane Moore die without leaving any child or children grand child or grand children children brother or brothers or the child or children of either of her deceased brothers then the said Trustees and the survivors of them are to sell the whole of said property and distribute the personal proceeds thereof amongst the next of living kin of my present wife as if it were her property and she had died intestate

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the tenth day of June in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty three and in the 77 year of the Sovereignty and Independence
