Good afternoon,

Please find my submitted application for the Arena District board for your review. I am a voting member of District 25, extremely interested in serving on a board for the professional and personal experience it will bring and to help advance the goals and missions of Greenville, South Carolina. I have viewed present board members and, though I do not have the professional qualities they possess as business owners, entrepreneurs, and senior executives, I am not afraid to apply to be aligned with them as I know such a connection would benefit me so that I can become like them. The skills that I bring as a current analyst and former accountant and police officer will allow me the opportunity to provide significant contribution to the needs of the board.

I pray that my application will be received well by the council and that I will be able to serve in a board position. In the event that I am not, I respectfully honor the decision of the council and wish everyone the best of luck and a prosperous 2018.

Thank you,

Amber K. Drummond
