Item (13) Administrator's Report

Mr. Kernell provided an update on the University Ridge Development, and more specifically, the Greenville County Administration Building. The building was well underway and a report had been provided to Council a few weeks prior. The contractors had put in over 235,000 man-hours; more than 120,000 man-hours had been logged since the last reportable incident. An average of 180 workers were on site daily. There had been no “rain days” in the month of March; five (5) were programmed into the construction schedule. Looking ahead, progress would continue on the building. Although there was limited time available to tour the building due to construction, arrangements had been made for Council to do so. Construction was on schedule with completion scheduled for the fourth quarter of 2022 and move-in the first quarter of 2023.

Item (14) Requests and Motions

Motion carried unanimously.

- Councilor Barnes stated it appeared that everything had gone well during the meeting. He thanked his colleagues.
- Councilor Shaw stated he appreciated all the guests in attendance. He was not aware of some of the groups that were honored with proclamations. One of the evening's attendees, Colonel Shaw, would be speaking at the Poinsett Club on Wednesday, March 16 at 12:00 p.m. The topic was the Vietnam War; Mr. Shaw encouraged his colleagues to attend.
- Councilor Norris stated she continued to work on facility issues in New Washington Heights. She wanted to resolve those issues before the end of her term.
- Councilor Seman stated the month of March was Women's History Month. She recently had the opportunity to speak at the City of Women project, which included an art installation at the Greenville Center for Creative Arts. She was pleased to report that Greenville County Council member Xanthene Norris and former member, Lottie Gibson, were featured as part of the exhibit. Ms. Seman thanked Ms. Norris for her many years of service to the community.

Ms. Seman recognized the staff of Meals on Wheels who were in attendance. Each Council Member had been provided with information regarding the number of clients served by Meals on Wheels and the number of volunteers from each Council district. She encouraged everyone to volunteer with Meals on Wheels as it was life changing.

- Councilor Fant stated SCTAC officially attended the South Carolina Automotive Summit held earlier in the month at the Hyatt Regency in downtown Greenville. It was the largest conference held to date, with more than 400 registrants and attendants. Guest speakers included Governor Henry McMaster and South Carolina Commerce Secretary Harry M. Lightsey. Mr. Fant congratulated SCTAC and the South Carolina Automotive Council for a very successful event.
- Councilor Ballard thanked staff for the UDO (Unified Development Ordinance) Workshop that was held earlier in the day.
- Councilor Dill called attention to a letter at each Council Member's seat from Jill Hood. Ms. Hood had pointed out some concerns regarding bicycle riders; he suggested Council consider the issue. Mr. Dill thanked Councilor Seman for her assistance in moving toward providing meals for the area's senior citizen centers. They worked together on the idea when Ms. Seman was the Director of Meals on Wheels and he was the Chairman of the Regional Aging Committee.

Councilor Dill wished Regina McCaskill, Clerk to Council, a Happy Birthday.

Item (15) Adjournment

Action: Councilor Tripp moved to adjourn the meeting.

Motion carried unanimously and the meeting adjourned at 7:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted:

Regina G. McCaskill
Clerk to Council
