My interest in serving on the Library Board of Trustees Commission:

I have been an avid reader throughout my life and I believe in the role of libraries to provide access to information for all Americans, regardless of race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity, sexual orientation, and pregnancy), national origin, age, or disability. I want to do what I can do ensure that Americans' right to access is not compromised by the self-serving interests of the individual.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

To carry out the power and duties of the board with integrity, ensuring competence, accountability and fairness.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Library Board of Trustees Commission:

I'm educated, collaborative and caring. I take initiative and as a therapist, am skilled in conflict resolution and effective communication. I treat everyone with respect and operate with integrity.

My community topics of concern that relate to the Library Board of Trustees Commission:

The efforts to ban books and control access to information.
Ensuring that children and parents have access to books that promote healthy emotional development and mental wellness.
