My interest in serving on the Planning Commission is:

I am a Greenville County resident who has lived in the Greenville area my entire life. Recognizing the prosperous growth and impact this commission has had with transforming our downtown areas into a destination city; there is an opportunity to impact growth as it expands outside of downtown. I want to be a part of that influence and growth for future generation. I am an active member of my community and will offer a unique perspective and diversity to the existing members of this Committee.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying:

To uphold the current Land Development regulations and Zoning ordinances as it pertains to future growth. Participate in continued planning and programs for the future of Greenville County that will benefit all citizens to promote public health, safety, convenience, and prosperity of this area. This committee supports the four interrelated divisions that make up the Planning Department to promote managed growth by maintaining a comprehensive planning program to promote sustainable development.

Describe your strengths or skills that would positively contribute to the Planning Commission:

I am detail oriented, organized, skilled at facilitation of interdisciplinary discussions, and utilize negotiation tactics which are skills that would be necessary for positive contribution. I possess skills in efficient comprehension and interpretation of civil plans and associated documents which are necessary for planning review. I have strong clinical analysis and assessment skills while maintaining an open mind to incorporate various perspectives and information.

My community topics of concern that relate to the Planning Commission are:

My community topics of concern that relate to the Planning Commission include promoting equity and inclusion of all perspectives surrounding planned growth in Greenville County, especially in the district I would represent on this committee. The comprehensive plan provides guidance and can be utilized as a valuable tool in future planning for this county. Ensuring the future generations can enjoy and value the diversity this county provides to current citizens and the generations to come.
