

Proclamation

*On a motion from Councilor Liz Seman
Members of Greenville County Council wish to honor*

Kelley Magill

Whereas, Kelley Magill has become a beacon of environmental stewardship and community spirit since joining the Adopt-A-Road program. Her unwavering dedication has demonstrably improved the beauty and safety of Greenville County roadways; and

Whereas, Ms. Magill has not only faithfully cleaned Fowler Road, but has extended her efforts to encompass numerous roads throughout the county, removing an estimated two thousand pounds of litter in just one year; and

Whereas, her commitment transcends beautification. By preventing litter from entering our waterways, Ms. Magill actively protects the health of our aquatic ecosystems and wildlife; and

Whereas, Ms. Magill's dedication is particularly inspiring as each cleaned mile honors the memory of Sebastian Fiaz, a friend's son who passed away in a car accident. Her act of service embodies the transformative power of turning personal loss into positive action for the community.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Greenville County Council does hereby honor Kelley Magill for her exceptional contributions to environmental sustainability and her outstanding volunteer service to our community. Her unwavering dedication and compassion serve as a powerful inspiration to all.

Douglas Robertson

Whereas, Douglas Robertson embodies the spirit of environmental stewardship. Douglas demonstrates a deep commitment to keeping our community clean. He consistently dedicated his own time and effort to removing litter from nearly four and a half miles of roadway in the areas of Old Spartanburg Road, S. Batesville Road, and Hammett Road; removing countless bags of discarded plastic, bottles, and other harmful debris; and

Whereas, Douglas' unwavering commitment extends beyond the miles he cleans. His infectious positive attitude is a beacon for the community. Witnessing his dedication has inspired numerous others to join the fight against litter, making a real difference in Greenville County; and

Whereas, Douglas' dedication goes far beyond beautification. By preventing litter from polluting our waterways and harming wildlife, he plays a crucial role in protecting our irreplaceable natural resources; and

Whereas, the positive impact of Douglas' service extends to every resident and visitor who enjoys a cleaner, more beautiful Greenville County. His commitment to environmental responsibility is a shining example of good citizenship.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the County of Greenville honor Douglas Robertson for his dedication to environmental responsibility and his outstanding volunteer service to the community. Litter cleanup volunteers like Douglas are true heroes, inspiring us all to do our part to keep Greenville County clean. Greenville County Council is incredibly grateful to Douglas for his service. He is a true inspiration, and we are proud to honor him with this proclamation.
