

Proclamation

*On a motion from Councilor Liz Seman
Members of Greenville County Council wish to honor*

Gail and David Haggarty

Whereas, Gail and Dave Haggarty have been exemplary volunteers with the Litter Ends Here program for the past six years, demonstrating unwavering dedication to environmental stewardship; and

Whereas, they have spearheaded countless cleanups along Standing Springs Road, Holcombe Road, W Georgia Road, Ranch Road, Log Shoals Road, and many more; removing thousands of pounds of litter and safeguarding our waterways; and

Whereas, Gail and Dave Haggarty's commitment extends beyond the areas they clean. Their infectious positive attitude is a beacon for the community. Through their tireless efforts, Gail and Dave have not only beautified our county roads but also inspired countless others to join their mission, fostering a spirit of community collaboration; and

Whereas, their dedication to service extends beyond litter removal. By preventing trash from entering the waterways of the Reedy River, they have safeguarded the health of our aquatic ecosystems and wildlife. Their commitment to environmental responsibility is a shining example of good citizenship.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Greenville County Council does hereby honor Gail and Dave Haggarty for their exceptional contributions to environmental sustainability and their outstanding volunteer service to our community. Their unwavering dedication serves as an inspiration to all and paves the way for a cleaner, healthier future for Greenville County.
