TO: Chairman Kirven and Members, Committee on Finance

SUBJECT: Reappointment of Board Members to the County Square
Redevelopment Corporation

DATE: January 17, 2024

As established in 2020, The County Square Redevelopment Corporation and Board of Directors was created exclusively to carry out the purposes of owning, leasing, financing, constructing, acquiring, developing and operating land, buildings and equipment, and facilities functionally related to the furtherance of the authority of Greenville County.

The Redevelopment Corporation's Board of Directors term expired at the end of 2023. Staff is asking the Finance Committee to confirm the reappointment of the corporation's three board members. The members, John Castile, Executive Director, Greenville Redevelopment Authority, Jacqueline DiMaggio, VP of Finance, Greenville Technical College and Dianna Gracely, City Manager, City of Simpsonville, will serve another three-year term set to end in 2027.
