Patterson; thence along the line of the Patterson lands N. 77-27 W. 1.67 feet to an iron pin on Earle Davenport's land; thence S. 14-15 E 178.7 feet to an iron pin; thence S 12-55 E. 427.65 feet to an iron pin; thence S. 16-05 E. 307 feet to the beginning corner and containing 12.05 acres, more or less .

Prior to conveying the 12.05 acre tract to Mrs. Etta Fowler, the grantor thereof and Earle Davenport entered into a written agreement fixing and establishing the line between the Earle Davenport property and grantor's property. It is intended that the description of the lands here conveyed by modified so as to conform to the agreed line as set forth in that written agreement.

Reference is here made to the deed from Margaret M. Strader to L. S. Verdin above referred to, the deed from L. S. Verdin to Etta Fowler which bears date November 28, 1941 and is hereinabove referred to, together with the written contract or agreement entered into between L. S. Verdin and Earle Davenport and hereinbefore mentioned.
