

PROTECTIVE COVENANTS

FOR

TIMBERLAKE
A RESIDENTIAL SUBDIVISION
NEAR GREENVILLE, S. C.

1. These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding upon all parties and all persons claiming under them until June 30, 1980.
2. These covenants are applicable to all of the lots as shown on the plat of Timberlake, made by Dalton & Neves, dated July, 1955, and recorded in the RMC Office for Greenville County, S. C. in Plat Book "BB", page 185.
3. If the present owner, or his successors, heirs or assigns, or anyone claiming under him, shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants herein it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any real property situated in said development or subdivision to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such covenant and either to prevent him or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for such violation.
4. Invalidation of any of these covenants by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.
5. All the lots in the subdivision shall be known and described as residential lots. No structure shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on any residential building plot other than one detached single-family dwelling not to exceed two and one-half stories in height and a private garage for not more than three cars.
6. No livestock, cattle, swine, sheep, goats, or other such animals of similar breed shall be permitted to be kept on any residential plot. Likewise no chickens, ducks, geese, or other such fowls shall be permitted or kept on any residential plot except that fowls may be maintained in a limited number not in excess of ten, for the purpose of being consumed by the family residing on such residential plot.
7. No building shall be erected, placed or altered on any building plot in this subdivision until the building plans, specifications and
