Upon reading and filing the foregoing petition of William R. Timmons, Jr. and from our own knowledge and independent investigation from which it appears that William R. Timmons, Jr. owns all of the property lying on both sides of that segment of Claremont Drive which is south of the new by-pass, and that there are no intersecting roads or side roads and that the said segment of Claremont Drive does not serve any property other than that owned by the petitioner, and that it is not only of no value to his property but is detrimental to its full use in its present location. NOW THEREFORE
