PERSONALLY appeared before me H. J. Runion, who being first duly sworn states that he is the son of the late Nannie E. Runion, who died intestate in May, 1911, and that said estate was never administered in the Probate Court for Greenville County; that the said Nannie E. Runion died seized and possessed of Lot No. 1, containing 94 acres, more or less, according to a plat of the property of Mrs. Martha Bowling by J. K. Dickson dated December 1, 1886; that the said Nannie E. Runion inherited this tract from T. B. Bowling as will be seen by Apt. 42, File 24, in the Probate Judge's office for Greenville County; that at the death of his mother, Nannie E. Runion, the said H. J. Runion was the only heir and became seized and possessed of the 94 acres of land; that since 1911 the deponent has conveyed 32 acres to B. F. Hunt, and 2 acres, more or less, to F. J. and Victoria L. Lindsey by deed recorded in Deed Book 471 at Page 365; that there is now remaining in the possession of the said H. J. Runion approximately 60 acres, more or less, from the original tract; that deponent went into possession of this land prior to 1913 and has held the same exclusively and adversely since said date; that the sole reason for giving this affidavit is to clear any possible defect in the chain
