

such routes and rights of way shall be agreed to by the Seller, and in that connection the Purchaser shall have the right to remove fences and other such items, provided he shall replace them.

Excluded from said conveyance of timber shall be all cedar trees on the premises and the ten (10) large trees surrounding the Sellers' barn, which have been marked.

The Purchaser agrees to cut all stumps within four (4") inches of the ground, except where obstructions or other such things to prevent said cutting, shall prevent it.

In order to remove the timber from said premises, the Purchaser shall, subject to the exceptions set forth below, have eighteen (18) months with which to saw and remove the timber and complete all of his agreements, said agreement to expire 547 days subsequent to the execution of this document, excluding the date of the document. There is one exception to the time limit, that being and pertaining to the 30 acre tract situate on the southern side of the highway extending from the barn creek in a westerly direction to the line, as agreed to by the parties, which timber shall be sawed and removed and the Purchaser shall do all of the things which he has agreed to do within a period of 90 days subsequent to the execution of this document, excluding the date of this document.

IT WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals this the 31 day of July, 1961.
