

determine the manner in which expenses incurred in the administration of the trust shall be apportioned between corpus and income.

8. To employ attorneys, accountants, agents, custodians, clerks, investment counsel, and such other persons as they may deem necessary in the administration of this trust, and to make such payments therefor as they may deem reasonable and proper, and to delegate to such persons any discretion which they may deem proper.

9. No person dealing with the trustees shall be obliged to see to the application of any monies, securities or other properties paid or delivered to them or to inquire into their authority or into the propriety of any transaction.

10. Except as otherwise provided in the powers granted herein, the funds held by my fiduciaries shall be held and invested in accordance with the statutory provisions relating to investments of fiduciaries.

IV.

SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

The trustees may, in their discretion, appoint any person, bank, or corporation as trustee of this trust, and upon such appointment may account to such trustee and resign all further responsibility for the administration of this trust. This appointment shall be made by a written instrument signed by the trustees, reciting the fact of the appointment and delivered to the successor trustee. No notice to the grantor shall be required in order to make the resignation of the trustees and the appointment of the successor valid.

V.

ADDITIONS

The grantor reserves the right to herself or to any

(Continued on next page)