Personally appeared before the undersigned, an officer duly authorized by law to administer oaths, W. BARRY WILLIAMS, who, after being first duly sworn, deposes and says on oath as follows:

I am a duly licensed practicing attorney in Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia, and represented Robbie R. Thomason and John H. Thomason on or before May 4, 1972, and on June 21, 1972, when these parties entered into a property agreement and transfer of property.

On May 4, 1972, John H. Thomason and Robbie R. Thomason entered into a property settlement agreement, in connection with their pending divorce, whereby they agreed upon a division of their joint property, with the property to be divided equally between themselves. Thereafter, on June 21, 1972, Robbie R. Thomason executed a deed conveying her interest, which consisted of a dower interest, in and to property in Greenville County, South Carolina, about four miles Northwest of the City of Greenville, being described on a plat by J. C. Hill, dated April 27, 1956, in order for her to perform her property settlement agreement, and in exchange for other property, of equal value, from John H. Thomason. Neither party paid any money to the other and neither party rendered any service for the other and neither party made any promise for the payment of money or for the performance of services for the other as consideration for the conveyance.

Further deponent saith not.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 22nd day of July, 1972
