FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
GREENVILLE DIVISION

MAR 11 4 45 PM '72
DOWN: S. T. AB. TITLE TO REAL ESTATE
R.M.C.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I, J. Elliott Williams, United States Marshal for the District of South Carolina, SEND GREETING:

Whereas the United States of America, on May 11, 1972, filed its Complaint (Civil Action No. 72-570) in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, Greenville Division, against Raymond A. Hopkins and Ollie D. Hopkins, demanding judgment in relation to the premises and property mentioned and described therein, and on October 26, 1972, an Order of the Court was filed with the Clerk of said Court, whereby it was adjudged and decreed that the premises and property hereinafter described be sold by the United States Marshal for the District of South Carolina, on the terms and for the purposes mentioned in said Order; and that the said United States Marshal, after having duly advertised the said premises and property for sale by public outcry, did then, on December 13, 1972, openly and publicly, and according to the custom of auction, sell and dispose of the same to James D. McCoy, III, Assistant United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina, on behalf of the Secretary of Housing and Development, an Officer of the United States of America, and his successors in such office, as such, and his or their assigns, for the sum of Seventeen Thousand, Eight Hundred Thirty-nine and 88/100 Dollars ($17,839.88), he being at that price the highest bidder therefor; and

NOW, THEREFORE, Know all men by these presents, That I, J. Elliott Williams, United States Marshal for the District of South Carolina, in consideration of the sum of Seventeen Thousand, Eight
