

quired while a partner or then present to his mind, and the knowledge of any other partner who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting partner, operate as notice to or knowledge of the partnership, except in the case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner.

7. Section 52-25. Liability for wrongful act or omission of partner. When, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership or with the authority of his copartners, loss or injury is caused to any person, not being a partner in the partnership, or any penalty is incurred, the partnership is liable therefor to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

8. Section 52-26. Partnership bound by partner's breach of trust. The partnership is bound to make good the loss:

(1) When one partner acting within the scope of his apparent authority receives money or property of a third person and misapplies it; and

(2) When the partnership in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person and the money or property so received is misapplied by any partner while it is in the custody of the partnership.

9. Section 52-57. Nature of partners' liability. All partners are liable:

(1) Jointly and severally for everything chargeable to the partnership under Sections 52-25 and 52-26; and

(2) Jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership; but any partner may enter into a separate obligation to perform a partnership contract.

10. Section 52-41. Rules determining rights and duties of partners as to partnership. The rights and duties of the partners in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to
