

E. Rule Against Perpetuities: If the trust created hereunder shall violate any applicable rule against perpetuities or accumulations or any similar rule or law, the Trustees are hereby directed to terminate such trust on the date limited by such rule or law, and thereupon the property held in trust shall be distributed equally to the beneficiaries then entitled to share the income therefrom.

F. Reimbursement of Trustee: If the Trustees shall be compelled for any reason during the existence of this trust or thereafter to pay any tax or penalty with respect thereto, the Trustees shall be reimbursed from the trust estate; or, if the trust estate be then insufficient or terminated, the Trustees shall be reimbursed by the persons to whom the trust estate shall have been distributed, to the extent of the amount received by each distributee. Before making any final distribution of either income or principal, the Trustees may accordingly require a refunding agreement or may withhold distribution pending determination or release of any tax lien.

G. Situs of Trust: This Trust Agreement has been executed by the Donor and accepted by the Trustees in the State of Florida, and it shall be construed and regulated and all rights under it shall be governed by the laws of that State.

H. Revocability During Donor's Lifetimes: This Trust Agreement may be revoked, altered, modified and/or amended in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time by Donor, during her lifetime, by an instrument of equal dignity to this Agreement recorded in the Public Records of Seminole County, Florida. Upon the death of Donor, this Agreement, as it may have been modified, altered or amended, shall become final and binding and irrevocable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, JUANITA S. MACKEY, as Donor of the foregoing Trust Agreement, having hereunto set my hand and seal this

4 day of February, 1983.
