

loss, the Owner of the recreational facilities having such loss shall submit to the Owner or Owners a copy of the Operating Statement, along with the computation of the fractional share of such loss to be paid by each Owner. Each Owner shall contribute its fractional share of such loss within ten (10) days after the receipt of the Operating Statement, subject, however, to the method of resolving disputes set forth in Section 6 hereinbelow. However, if any Owner required to make any contribution as required under the provisions of this Section 5 fails to pay the same to the owner making demand therefor (the "Demanding Owner") within ten (10) days after the receipt of each Operating Statement or fails to give the notice, as required by Section 6 hereinbelow, to the Demanding Owner or otherwise fails to comply with the provisions of such Section 6, including, without limitation, the payment on a timely basis of its fractional share, whether under protest or not, then the Demanding Owner shall be entitled to bar such non-paying Owner from the use and enjoyment of the recreational facilities located upon the Demanding Owner's Project, it being understood that such bar shall be in addition to any other remedies that may be available to the Demanding Owner.

6. Disputes Over Operating Statements. In the event any Owner disputes the accuracy of any Operating Statement, the following rules for resolving such a dispute shall govern:

a. The Owner disputing the accuracy of such an Operating Statement (the "Disputing Owner") shall give notice to the Owner sending the Statement (the "Sending Owner") within ten (10) days after receipt of the Operating Statement, that a dispute has arisen and specifying the exact nature of the dispute. The Disputing Owner shall nevertheless pay, on a timely basis, his fractional share of the Operating Loss but may indicate the disputed entries and state that the amount is being paid under protest. The Disputing Owner shall likewise give written notice to any other Owners of the Projects covered by this Agreement who were not previously involved, within the same ten (10) day period following the Disputing Owner's receipt of the Operating Statement. Thereafter, any other Owners shall have the right to enter the dispute by notifying the Sending Owner in writing of their joinder within ten (10) days after their receipt of the Disputing Owner's notice of dispute and protest. Failure to join in the dispute shall disqualify any Owner who has been so notified from sharing in any reduction in its contributions resulting from adjustment in the operating
