

or his successors will bear no responsibility for removing or maintaining the fence.

5. That the parties agree that there is no attempt to adversely possess the property but rather the location of the fence is an accomodation to Christopher granted by Knecht.

6. It is understood between the parties that the entire fense shall remain the property of Christopher and the maintenance of said fence shall be at the discretion of Christopher.

7. This Agreement is binding on the heirs, successors and assigns of the parties.

WITNESS our hands and seals this 5th day of January, 1984.
