Fountain Inn Builders, Inc., ) Defendant. )

PERSONALLY APPEARED before me James A. Ellis, who, on oath says:

I. That he is a citizen and resident of Greenville County and is employed by Frank Ulmer Lumber Co., Inc., as Manager, Financial Services to Customers, and is authorized by Frank Ulmer Lumber Co., Inc., to make this affidavit.

II. That Fountain Inn Builders, Inc., a South Carolina corporation, is justly and truly indebted to Frank Ulmer Lumber Co., Inc., in the sum of $16,013.51 and that Frank Ulmer Lumber Co., Inc., is entitled to an attachment against Fountain Inn Builders, Inc., on the following grounds:

A. That Fountain Inn Builders, Inc., is a land developer and contractor engaged in the business of constructing single family dwellings upon various parcels of land located in Greenville County, South Carolina;

B. That Fountain Inn Builders, Inc., did purchase from Frank Ulmer Lumber Co., Inc., various building materials which were used in the construction of such single family dwellings;

C. That Fountain Inn Builders, Inc., has sold various residences and improvements constructed by it with the materials purchased from Frank Ulmer Lumber Co., Inc., but has failed and refused to make payment to Frank Ulmer Lumber Co., Inc., some of which sales are, by way of example:

1. A conveyance to Benny Lee Bivens for $18,500
