STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
 COUNTY OF GREENVILLE.

Personally appeared before me W. E. Henderson, who being first duly sworn deposes and says that he is Assistant Vice President of the South Carolina National Bank of Charleston and is located at the Greenville, S. C. Branch.

That heretofore on February 3, 1933, H. C. Harvley executed and delivered to the South Carolina National Bank of Charleston his note and mortgage in amount of $600.00 covering 2-2/3 acres, more or less, in Butler Township, and the mortgage is recorded in Mortgage Book 225, page 208, R. M. C. office for Greenville County. That said note and mortgage were paid and satisfied in full on May___, 1934, and deponent is informed and believes that said mortgage has not been satisfied and cancelled on the public records of this County, and same has now been misplaced, lost or destroyed, and deponent after diligent search has been unable to find same, although the original note accompanying said mortgage has been located, and deponent examined same before executing his affidavit and satisfaction, and same shown that it was paid on May___, 1934, and is so stamped by a rubber stamp of deponent's bank.

That said note and mortgage have not been assigned, transferred or hypothecated, and the Register of Mesne Conveyance of Greenville County, S. C. is hereby authorized and empowered to satisfy and cancel same upon the public records of this County, and to mark the record thereof paid and satisfied in full.

The original note referred to above is being attached to this affidavit and satisfaction.
