

And said mortgagor agrees to keep the building and improvements upon the premises above described, over the mortgaged premises and any and all appurtenant fixtures, the same being insured against loss or damage by insurance, to be maintained and kept in good repair, and to pay all such insurance as may be in force in amounts and in kind sufficient to meet the demands of the carriers for co-insurance satisfactory to the mortgagor, that all insurance policies shall be held by the mortgagor for the benefit of and firm payable in case of loss to the mortgagor, and that at least fifteen days before the expiration of each such policy, a new and sufficient policy to take the place of the one so expiring shall be taken out, and that the mortgagor shall be responsible to the mortgagee all moneys recoverable under such policies, and that the amount collected under any policy of insurance on said property may be applied in payment of the moneys due upon the mortgages upon any indebtedness and/or obligation secured hereby and in such order as mortgagee may determine; or said amount or any portion hereof may, at the option of the mortgagor, either be used in replacing, repairing or restoring the improvements partially or totally destroyed to a condition satisfactory to said mortgagee, or be released to the mortgagor in writing of which event the mortgagee shall not be obligated to see to the proper application thereof, nor shall the mortgagor be liable for any deficiency.

In case of default in the payment of any part of the principal and interest, or any part of the interest, at the time the same becomes due, or in the case of failure to keep insured for the benefit of the mortgagor the house and buildings on the premises against fire and such other hazards as the mortgagee may require, as herein provided, or in case of failure to pay any taxes or assessments to become due on said property within the time required by law, in either of said cases the mortgagee shall be entitled to declare the entire debt due and to institute foreclosure proceedings.

And it is further covenanted and agreed that in the event of the passage, after the date of this mortgage, of any law of the State of South Carolina deducting from the value of land, for the purpose of taxing any less therein or changing in any way the laws in force for the taxation of mortgaged or debts secured by mortgagee for State or local purposes, or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, so as to affect this mortgage, the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon shall, at the option of the said Mortgagee without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.

And in case proceedings for foreclosure shall be instituted, the mortgagor agrees to and does hereby assign the rents and profits arising or to arise from the mortgaged premises as additional security for this loan and agrees that any Judge of jurisdiction may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the premises, and collect the rents and profits and apply the net proceeds (after paying costs of receivership) upon said debt, interest, costs and expenses, without liability to account for any deficiency, and to pay over the same wholly received.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and if it be the true intent and meaning of the parties of the present, that if the said mortgagor, does and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the debt or sum of money aforesaid with interest thereon, if any be due according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, and any and all other sums which may become due and payable hereunder, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

AND IT IS AGREED by and between the said parties that said mortgage shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the said Premises until default shall be made as herein provided.

The covenants herein contained shall bind, and the benefit and advantages shall move to, the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the parties hereto. Whenever used the singular number shall include the plural, the plural the singular, by use of any gender shall be applicable to all genders, and the term "Mortgagor" shall include any person of the indebtedness hereby secured or any transferee thereof, his or her executors, administrators, successors and assigns.
