

the power at any time, by instrument in writing duly executed by its President or a Vice President, to remove the Co-Trustee and appoint a successor as aforesaid.

The Co-Trustee shall have the same duties as are set forth in Section 8.01 of the Original Indenture. The provisions of Sections 8.01, 8.02, 8.03, 8.05, 8.06 and 8.07 shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be applicable to the Co-Trustee with the same effect as if the word "Trustee" where it appears in said Sections were to read "Trustees."

The Co-Trustee shall join with the Trustee in the execution of any supplemental indenture and release which the Trustee is authorized to execute under the provisions of Articles Eleven, Thirteen and Fourteen of the Original Indenture and any supplemental indenture required by Article Twelve of the Original Indenture shall name the Co-Trustee as a party thereto.

ARTICLE TWO

RECONVEYANCE AND MORTGAGE OF PROPERTY

§2.01. The Company in order to better secure the principal of and interest (and premium, if any) on all Notes and Bonds of the Company at any time outstanding under the Original Indenture according to their tenor and effect and the performance of and compliance with the covenants and conditions in the Original Indenture and this First Supplemental Indenture contained, does hereby grant, bargain, sell, mortgage, and reconvey unto the Trustees, and to each of them and to their successors in said trust, forever, all of the properties, rights and franchises described in the Original Indenture and all properties, rights and franchises acquired or constructed by the Company since the date of the Original Indenture, except property of the character specifically excepted from the lien of the Original Indenture. In trust, nevertheless, for the same purposes and upon the same conditions as are set forth in the Original Indenture.
