

State of South Carolina, )

County of Greenville. )

SS

Personally comes Joe T. Lawrence who upon oath says that he is a son of J.R. Lawrence and Sarah A. Lawrence, and that the will of the said Sarah A. Lawrence is duly filed and probated in the office of the Probate Judge for Greenville County in Apartment 127, file #20, and that under the will of the said Sarah A. Lawrence the home place was devised to her two daughters, Leila Lawrence and Bessie Lawrence, sisters of deponent, and the deponent understands and the said Sarah A. Lawrence understood and so intended that the home place comprising and including all the land belonging to the said Sarah A. Lawrence, at the time of her death, situate on the east side of Main Street, on the North side of Earle Street and on the south side of Swiss Avenue, in Ward ~~Three~~ Two of Greenville City on which was situate a residence for the family, then in process of construction, and that the said Sarah A. Lawrence intended that any other land than the home place situate at any other place than above mentioned, should be devised to her sons. Deponent makes no claim to any part of the land above mentioned and understands and agrees that the fee simple title to all of said land and the said home place belonging to the said Sarah A. Lawrence at the time of her death is vested absolutely in said two sisters and deponent to this binds himself, his heirs and assigns, and further agrees to assist his sisters, their heirs and assigns to the sole and exclusive claim to all of said land as against the claim of any of the brothers who may not sign an affidavit similar to this.

Sworn to and subscribed to before me this the 1st, day of January 1917.

Dixon D. Davis (Seal)

Notary Public for South Carolina.

Joe T. Lawrence

For the deed to the above instrument, see deed book Vol. #36, at page 150.

RECORDED January 9th, 1917.