Whereas the First Baptist Church of Fountain Inn, S.C. formerly owned a lot on the corners of Main and Fairview Streets, in the town of Fountain Inn, and it becoming desirable to sell this property, the deacons of the First Baptist Church were duly authorized by the membership of the said Church in a regular conference assemble to sell and convey the said property; but the resolution authorizing the sale and conveyance of the said property not having been recorded, and the said property being so sold in various lots, the question has now arisen as to the validity of the said conveyance.

Now in order that there may be no doubt as to the power and right to the deacons as aforesaid to sell the property, the members of the First Baptist Church of Fountain Inn in conference duly assembled do hereby ratify and confirm said sales, which said sales are as follows:
