

Greenville, S.C.
Nov. 29 1926

Whereas the Concordia Fire Insurance Co by the policies numbered 13635 and 13650 dated on first day of July in the year 1926, and Twenty Third day of August in the year 1926, caused me to be insured against fire for damage by fire on certain buildings, furniture being located on the Old Albemarle Road eight miles north east of Greenville, in the sum of Policy # 13635 Five thousand dollars $4,000.00 and Policy # 13650 one thousand three hundred dollars $1,300.00. Now of the said Josie Trench Booth, in consideration of one dollar $1.00, paid to me by Charles H. Holladay and for other good considerations, he has transferred unto the said Charles H. Holladay the said policies of insurance and all the right, title, interest, or claim, which he now has or ever may have in to, or under the same, and in and to any sum of money which now is or shall ever be payable thereon.
