

Assignment of Rent.

Whereas, J. L. Locke has advanced to me the sum of one hundred dollars in cash, and I desire to secure the payment back to him,

Now, in consideration of said sum advanced as aforesaid, I do hereby assign my right, title and interest of, in and to any and all rents to be and become due me for the year 1935 from the lands or estate of my father, W. B. Locke. The tenant or tenants are hereby authorized and directed to pay said rent to the said J. L. Locke and this is his authority to collect the same.

January 9, 1935.
