The purpose and intent of this Deed drawn by le grand arriere-cetit-fils is to perpetuate con amore to the said Family of MacDavid (a patronymic for almost 600 years) the memory of those who helped to win the American Independence from England, and to protect forever the place of their last earthly remains, and to preserve from extinction these locations for the knowledge of those yet unborn.

To have and to hold said property to the said Albert C. (Bert) McDavid (the youngest son of late Dr. John Q. and Elizabeth Jane Smith McDavid), and to his heirs and assigns forever.
