

state of South Carolina,
County of Greenville.

This Agreement made and entered into this 17 day of June, 1935, by and between William Frederick Blakely and Lola M. Blakely, his wife, both of the County and State aforesaid,

Whereas, the parties above named are now living separate and apart, and have mutually agreed upon the terms of a separation, and never intend to live together again as man and wife, and desire that neither shall hereafter have any right or claim against each other for each other's property by reason of the marital relation:

Now, Therefore, witnesseth this agreements

One: For and in consideration of the sum of Ten Dollars by each party paid to the other, the receipt whereof is hereby mutually acknowledged, and for other good and valuable consideration, it is specifically understood and agreed that the said Lola M. Blakely has received full and complete settlement of all claims, past, present and future, which the said Lola M. Blakely may now or hereafter have against William Frederick Blakely or his property, whether for support, dower, through inheritance, or otherwise, and it is especially understood and agreed that from this day henceforth Lola M. Blakely shall have no right of dower in any of the property of her said husband, whether property now owned or hereafter to be acquired by any manner whatsoever, said right being completely renounced, and entirely extinguished by this agreement and the consideration hereinabove expressed. And the said parties do each renounce, release, and surrender all claims against each other, including all rights to cohabit and all rights in property, whether real or personal, and do hereby covenant and agree that neither of them shall henceforth have any claim or interest in the property or estate of the other, and each does hereby renounce, release, and relinquish all rights, claims and demands which she or he may now or hereafter have in the estate of the other, whether by reason of dower, curtesy, inheritance, or otherwise, under or by virtue of the laws of the State of South Carolina, or the laws of any other State of the United States, or any foreign Country.

Two: The said parties intend to live separate and apart and neither shall have any right against the other, or the property of the other, by reason of the existence of the marital relation, and neither shall have any right to interfere with the social or business life of each other, it being agreed that this instrument provides a mutually satisfactory disposition of the rights of each against the other, and each wishing and intending to release the other and the property of the other now owned or hereafter acquired, from any and all of his or her rights, claims and demands, however same may arise.

Three: The said parties hereto agree that they will consent to a full and complete divorce decree to be granted by any Court of competent jurisdiction under the laws of the residence of the parties instituting such procedure.

Four: The said William Frederick Blakely agrees to pay $25.00 per month to provide for his two children Margaret N. Blakely, William Maxwell Blakely, until both become of age. The children to remain with their mother.

In witness whereof the said William Frederick Blakely and Lola M. Blakely have hereunto set their hands and seals in duplicate the day and year first above written.
