

party will be employed for this purpose; and that both the parties will have equal voice in directing the overall policies of the business.

IV.

It is agreed by and between the parties, that they shall and will at all times during the continuance of the partnership, bear, pay and discharge equally between them all rents and other expenses that may be required for the support and management of said business, and that all gains, profits and increase that shall come, grow, or arise from or by means of their said business, shall be divided between them equally and all loss that shall happen to the said joint business by ill commodities, bad debts, or otherwise, shall be borne and paid between them equally.

V.

It is agreed by and between the parties, that there shall be had and kept at all times during the continuance of their partnership, perfect, just and true books of account showing all money by them or either of them received, paid, laid out, and expended in and about the said business, and all other matter and things whatsoever to the said business and management thereof belonging; which said books shall be used in common between the said partners, so that either of them may have access thereto, without any interruption of the other. And said partners on the first day of each month shall make and render, each to the other, a true, just and perfect inventory and account of all profits and increase by them or either of them made; and of all losses by them or either of them sustained; and also, all payments, disbursements, receipts, and all other things by them made, received, disbursed, acted, done or suffered in the said partnership and business; and the same account so made, shall and will clear, adjust, pay and deliver, each to the other, at the time, their just share of profits so made as aforesaid.

J. R.
J. M. A.