

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA :
 COUNTY OF GREENVILLE :

WHEREAS, I, MARY SUE WHITMIRE PETERSON, daughter of Leonard A. Whitmire and his wife, Jennie C. Whitmire; and

WHEREAS, Leonard A. Whitmire made a Will devising lands hereinafter described to his wife, Jennie C. Whitmire, for life, and then over to me in remainder; and

WHEREAS, the said Leonard A. Whitmire has died and I have since married but my devotion to my said mother, Jennie C. Whitmire, is constant and I desire to make some provision for her support;

NOW THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, Mary Sue Peterson of Spartanburg, South Carolina, in consideration of the premises of One ($1.00) Dollar to me in hand paid at and before the sealing of these presents by Jennie C. Whitmire, (the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged), have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said Jennie C. Whitmire in trust, as hereinafter stated, all that certain tract of land in Greenville County, South Carolina, about three (3) miles west of the City of Greenville, lying on Saluda River and the recently completed highway from Greenville to Easley, South Carolina, bounded by lands of H. K. Townes, Martin, and Sentell, and containing one hundred fifty (150) acres, more or less; excepted, however, those lots or parcels which have been conveyed therefrom since the death of said Leonard A. Whitmire as shown by recorded deeds and instruments in said RMC Office for Greenville County, S. C.; and being known as the Whitmire Farm owned by the said Leonard A. Whitmire at the time of his death.

Said land shall be held by Jennie C. Whitmire, and her
