

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

A F F I D A V I T

COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

Personally appeared before me Jane S. Thompson who after being duly sworn deposes and says that she is the widow of L. H. Thompson who died intestate in the year 1914. That during her marriage with L. H. Thompson there were born unto L. H. Thompson and deponent seven children all of whom survived the said L. H. Thompson, to-wit: 3 sons, Sherman C. Thompson, Alvin M. Thompson, Lowell Benton Thompson, and 4 daughters, Ollie Thompson Plumbley, Annie Burns, Grace Hester and Lola Stella Thompson Cox. That Lowell Benton Thompson died intestate October 6, 1946, leaving surviving him his wife, Inez Carnes Thompson and a daughter Bobbie Jean Thompson, both of whom live in Hammond, Indiana. That Lola Stella Thompson Cox died intestate Jan. 29, 1936, leaving surviving her husband, Albert J. Cox; a daughter, Lucille C. Bayne, and 2 sons, Frank C. Cox and James T. Cox. That subsequent to the death of Lola Stella Thompson Cox, her husband, Albert J. Cox, remarried and then died intestate Nov. 13, 1947, leaving surviving him, his wife, Elizabeth Williams Cox, now Elizabeth C. Stamey, and children, Lucille C. Bayne, Frank C. Cox and James T. Cox.

That when L. H. Thompson died he owned 30.1 acres of land in Saluda Township. That his estate was never probated and the ownership of the land has passed to his heirs and to his heirs' heirs until now Jane S. Thompson, Sherman C. Thompson, Alvin M. Thompson

(continued on next page)

(11)