

balance due as a result of said payments and that these total amounts constitute all back payments through October 19, 1963.

III.

The first party hereby agrees to pay to the Peoples National Bank of Greenville, South Carolina, as trustee for the four named children of the said parties a sum equal to one-half of the first party's equity upon the sale of all the remaining property owned jointly by himself and E. F. Breazeale, to be held by said trustee under a trust agreement to be executed in the future. The said trust instrument shall give the bank authority to make payments on behalf of the children for their education unless by mutual consent of the parties hereto the bank shall expend funds for any other purposes for their benefit. The first party hereby further agrees to supplement the funds of this trust to the end that all four children shall have available to them a college education provided the said children are diligent in their pursuits.

IV.

It is agreed between the parties that the divorce decree shall include therein the order of the first party to pay to the second party the sum of Four Hundred Eighty-Six and 25/100 Dollars ($486.25) within four years from the date of said decree, said sum having been expended by the second party for the benefit of the children of the parties.

V.

It is hereby agreed that this agreement shall be incorporated into and made a part of the judgment of the court for a divorce.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have hereunto set their hand and seal this twenty-first day of October, 1963.
