

(2) Provided, however, that the Trustor may, at any time hereafter, revoke this trust and re-vest title in herself and take possession of all property held by the Trustee at that time, but no such revocation shall affect the rights of any parties who shall have dealt with the Trustee, unless and until the Trustor shall have filed in the R. M. C. Office for Greenville County a written revocation of this trust, and the parties affected thereby shall have received written notice thereof, to be proved only by return receipts for certified or registered mail.

(3) In addition to the powers conferred upon fiduciaries by law and with the direction that a grant of a specific power shall not be construed as a limitation of general powers, whether granted herein or by law, the Trustee is specifically empowered:

(a) To compromise or abandon any claims arising out of, in favor of, or against the trust, and his decision thereupon shall be binding and conclusive on all parties, and he shall not be liable for the proper discharge or compromise of said claim.

(b) To invest and re-invest the principal and/or accumulated income in such property in such manner as he may deem proper, without being restricted to investments which are legal or customarily used for the investment of trusts, as well as to keep on hand uninvested such sums as he may deem expedient.
