BOOK 776 PAGE 258

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

OLLIE FRANKS WORTH AFFIDAVIT
R.M.C.

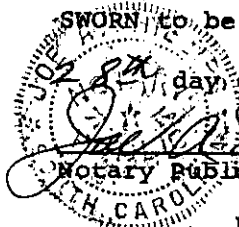

PERSONALLY appeared before me Mrs. R. A. Springfield, who after being duly sworn, desposes and says that she of her own knowledge knew T. J. Newby and his daughter Leila Newby Reynolds and that in addition thereto, your Deponent states that she knew Leila Newby Reynolds during her lifetime and at her death, and knows of her own knowledge that Leila Newby Reynolds had four children; the first which was stillborn and then two children who were twins that lived, by the name of Kathleen Reynolds Burgess and Christine Reynolds Carlin and the fourth child which was likewise stillborn, so that there were only two children, Kathleen and Christine, who were the heirs of the body of Leila Newby Reynolds. This is to state that she had no other bodily heirs. Your deponent was present at all four births.

Your Deponent makes this statement and says it is true and correct and gives said statement for the purpose of inducing Younts & Spence Attorneys to pass title on the property owned by John Alexander Lane, Jr. and Opal Reynolds Lane. Your Deponent is not kin to any of the parties involved.

SWORN to before me this the 28th day of May, 1965.
