

more than $1,000, he shall be paid $1,000 in order when reached and his withdrawal request shall be charged with such amount as paid and shall be renumbered and placed at the end of the list of withdrawal requests, and thereafter, upon again being reached, shall be paid a like amount, but not exceeding the withdrawal value of his savings account, and until such withdrawal request shall have been paid in full, shall continue to be so paid, renumbered, and replaced at the end of the withdrawal requests on file: Provided, That when any such request is reached for payment, the association shall so advise the holder of such savings account by registered mail to his last address as recorded on the books of the association and, unless such holder shall apply in person or in writing for the payment of such withdrawal request within 30 days from the date of the mailing of such notice, no payment on account of such withdrawal request shall be made and such request shall be cancelled: And provided further, That the board of directors shall have absolute right to pay on an equitable basis an amount not exceeding $200 to any holder of a savings account or accounts in any calendar month and without regard to any other provision of this section.

When the association is unable to pay all withdrawal requests within a period not exceeding 30 days from the date of receipt of written request therefor it shall allot to the payment of such requests the remainder of the association's receipts from all sources after deducting from total receipts appropriate amounts for expenses, required payments on indebtedness, earnings distributable in cash to holders of savings accounts, and a fund for general corporate purposes equivalent to not more than 20 percent of the association's receipts from holders of its savings accounts and from its borrowers. Holders of savings accounts for which application for withdrawal has been made shall remain holders of savings accounts until paid and shall not become creditors.

7. Redemption. At any time sufficient funds are on hand, the association shall have the right to redeem, by lot or otherwise as the board of directors may determine, all or any part of any of its savings accounts on June 30 or December 31, by giving 30 days' notice of such redemption by registered mail addressed to the holder of each such savings account at his last address as recorded on the books of the association. The association may not redeem any of its savings accounts when there is an impairment of its capital or when it has any request for withdrawal which has been on file and unpaid for more than 30 days. The redemption price of each savings account redeemed shall be the full value thereof, as determined by the board of directors, but in no event shall the redemption price be less than the withdrawal amount of such savings account. If a savings account which is redeemed is entitled to participate in any reserve for bonus, the amount in such reserve for bonus which is properly allocable to such savings account shall be paid as part of the redemption price thereof. If any notice of redemption shall have been duly given, and if the funds necessary for such redemption shall have been set aside so as to be and to continue to be available for that purpose, earnings upon such account shall cease to accrue from and after the date specified as the redemption date and all rights with respect to each such account shall forthwith, after such redemption date, terminate, except only the right of the holder of record of such savings account to receive the redemption price thereof without earnings.

8. Loans and investments. The association may make any loan or investment authorized by statute and the rules and regulations made by the Home Loan Bank Board and in effect on August 15, 1949; it may make such additional loans and investments as may thereafter be authorized by amendments of the said rules and regulations.

9. Power to borrow. The association may borrow money in an aggregate amount not exceeding one-half of its capital; the amount which may be borrowed from sources other than a Federal home loan bank shall not exceed one-tenth of such capital. Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, the association may, with prior approval by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, borrow from a Federal home loan bank or from any Federal agency or instrumentality without limitation, upon such terms and conditions as may be required by such bank or agency. The association may pledge and otherwise encumber any of its assets to secure its debts.

10. Reserves, surplus, and distribution of earnings. The association shall maintain general reserves for the sole purpose of meeting losses; such reserves shall include the reserve required for insurance of accounts. Any losses may be charged against general reserves. If and whenever the general reserves of the association are not equal to at least 10 percent of its capital, it shall, as of June 30 and December 31 of each year, credit to such reserves an amount equivalent to at least 5 percent of its net earnings for the 6 months' period, or such amount as may be required by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, whichever is greater, until such reserves are equal to at least 10 percent of the association's capital. As of June 30 and December 31 of each year, after payment or provision for payment of all expenses, credits to general reserves and such credits to surplus as the board of directors may determine, and provision for bonus on savings accounts as authorized by regulations made by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the board of directors of the association shall cause the remainder of the net earnings of the association for the 6 months' period to be distributed promptly on its savings accounts, ratably, as declared by the board of directors, to the withdrawal value thereof; in lieu of or in addition to such net earnings, any of the association's surplus funds may be likewise distributed. Such net earnings shall be credited to savings
