

one (21) years, then all of said funds and accrued income shall be distributed ultimately as a part of the corpus of the trust estate.

When the four named beneficiaries of this trust have died and their present spouses have died or remarried and when the youngest child now living among the children of the four named beneficiaries has attained the age of twenty-seven (27) years (or if then deceased would have attained the age of twenty-seven (27) years if still living,) then in that event the said trust shall terminate and the trustees shall distribute the corpus of said trust estate and all accrued and undistributed income therefrom as follows:

(a) The children of each of the deceased beneficiaries shall receive their parents' share, per stirpes, share and share alike.

(b) Should one or more of the children of a deceased beneficiary predecease the distribution of the corpus of the trust estate, his or her share shall be divided equally among or between the surviving children of the deceased beneficiary.

(c) Should no child or children of the deceased beneficiary be living at the time of the distribution of the corpus of said trust estate, the share which would have gone to such child or children, shall be divided, per stirpes, among the children of the other deceased beneficiaries of the trust.

(12) A trustee shall have the right to resign by instrument in writing, the original to be attached to this instrument and a copy thereof to be delivered to each of the surviving beneficiaries.

(13) Should either of the trustees named in this instrument resign for any reason whatsoever or should the demise of either of said trustees occur prior to the time designated in this instrument for the termination and distribution of the corpus of this trust estate, then in that event, the surviving trustee is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to nominate a new trustee as successor to the
