

may be made by the Trustee, in his discretion, without requiring bond, directly to a minor beneficiary who has reached his or her eighteenth (18th) birthday; to an adult person with whom such minor maintains his or her home; to the duly qualified and acting general guardian of such minor; or to any person, firm or corporation lawfully furnishing goods or services to such minor, and the receipt of such person, corporation or firm shall acquit and discharge the Trustee to the extent of any payment so made.

(e) The Trustee shall have the power to appoint by an instrument in writing as successor trustee upon his resignation or death any bank or trust company qualified to do business in the State of South Carolina, or any individual (other than the Trustor or any person who has conveyed or transferred any property to this trust), and such successor trustee upon the acceptance of such appointment shall be and become Trustee of the trust herein created with the same force and effect and the same duties and powers as if such successor trustee had been originally nominated as such. The Trustee shall also have the power to negotiate and agree on the fees to be paid by the trust for the services of such successor trustee.

THIRD: The Trustee and his successors shall have the following powers in addition to all powers conferred by law, and insofar as permitted by law may exercise such powers without application to any Court as often as he may deem proper, such powers to be exercised in a fiduciary capacity in the sole interest of the beneficiary:

(a) To sell, transfer and convey the whole or any part of the property, whether real or personal, constituting this trust,

(Continued on next page)