ANTENUPTIAL AGREEMENT

This Antenuptial Agreement, made and entered into on the 6th day of May, 1976, is by and between CLARENCE W. BOHLANDER, a resident of the City of Marion, Linn County, Iowa, and MARDIE C. SHAW, a resident of the City of Greenville, South Carolina.

WHEREAS, a marriage is intended to be solemnized between said parties and in view of the fact that after their marriage, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, their legal relations and powers as regards property may by reason of some change in their domicile or otherwise, be other than those of their present domicile, or other than those which they desire to have applied to their relations, powers and capacities, and,

WHEREAS, each of the parties hereto has disclosed to the other the full amount of all property owned by each of said parties,

NOW, THEREFORE, Clarence W. Bohlander and Mardie C. Shaw do hereby agree, covenant and declare it to be their desire that during their marriage, each of them shall be and continue to be completely independent of the other in regard to the enjoyment and disposal of their own separate property whether owned by either of them at the commencement of the marriage or thereafter acquired, or coming to them or either of them, during the marriage. Each of them hereby agrees and covenants with the other, and in consideration of said proposed marriage, that so far as is legally possible by their private act and agreement that all the property belonging to either of them at the commencement of the marriage or acquired by or coming to either of them during the marriage shall be held and enjoyed by him or her and be subject to his or her disposition as if it were his or her separate property in the same manner as if the proposed marriage had never taken place. That if either party desires to sell or mortgage his or her property or any part thereof, the other agrees to join in said deed or mortgage without any consideration other than the marriage herein referred to and the mutual promises herein made.

And the parties hereto expressly further agree and covenant with each other that on the death of either, the survivor shall not have and will not assert any claim, interest, estate or title, under the laws of any state because of such survivorship in or to the property, real, personal
