

said trustee shall be fixed by the Judge; to collect and receive the income, revenue and profits of said business, and to collect outstanding accounts receivable; to pay, until further order of the court, all necessary current expenses, and to make all necessary purchases in operating, managing and preserving the assets of the debtor and necessary to conduct its business; to pay such wages of employees as were accrued and unpaid at the date of the commencement of the operation of the business; to pay all necessary expenses of printing, publishing and mailing of notices, plans, petitions and order required by the Act or by the order of this court; to pay all taxes lawfully incurred in the operation of the business by the trustee, or imposed upon the debtor's property during the operation of the business by the trustee; to hold any additional monies which come into the said trustee's possession and not expended for any of the purposes aforesaid, subject to the further order of this court.

7. The said trustee shall maintain books of account, showing all the earnings, expenses, receipts and disbursements subsequent to the date of this order, and shall preserve proper vouchers for all payments made upon account thereof, and shall deposit the monies coming into his possession in the First Citizens Bank & Trust Company of South Carolina at Charleston, S.C., and said trustee is authorized to make all payments and to draw any and all checks in the ordinary conduct of the said business.

8. Pending the further order of this court, the trustee is authorized to retain and employ O.T. Wallace, now president of debtor.

9. That the said trustee shall file with the clerk of this court not less than 15 days before the date of the hearing provided for in paragraph 10 below, a report and summary of the operations of the business and the present condition thereof, and not later than the 30th day of each month during the period the trustee continues to operate the business of the debtor, a report

0050