

all other documents, instruments and papers relating to any tax liability of mine of any sort; to institute and carry on either through counsel or otherwise any proceeding in connection with contesting any such tax or to recover any tax paid or to resist any claim for additional tax on any proposed assessment or levy thereof, and to enter into any agreements or stipulations for compromise or other adjustments or dispositions of any tax for each tax year from 1950 through 1999.

20. To make any reports of information of any sort whatsoever to any government as required by law or regulation.

21. To exercise any powers and any duties vested in me, whether solely or jointly with any other or others as executors, administrators, or trustees or in any other fiduciary capacity, so far as such power or duty is capable of being validly delegated.

22. To establish where I shall reside, including the exact physical location, and the City, County and State of residence and, if necessary make all necessary arrangements for me at any hospital, convalescent institution, nursing home or similar establishment, to have and exercise all rights on my behalf which I have and possess at such residence or institution and to report such address as my official address to the United States Post Office and to any other person, firm, corporation or governmental agency as may be necessary, desirable, convenient or appropriate.

23. To authorize any and all kinds of medical procedures and treatment, including but not limited to medication, therapy, surgical procedures and dental care, and to consent to all such treatment, medication or procedures where such consent is required; to obtain the use of medical equipment, devices or other equipment and devices deemed by my attorney needful for proper care, custody and control of my person.

And generally to transact all business affairs and interests, as fully and completely as I myself might do if personally present; and to any and all acts and things which my attorney shall deem useful, necessary or proper to do any of the foregoing acts or to carry out any of the foregoing powers.

My attorney shall have full power of substitution and revocation, and such substitution or revocation may relate to or be limited to any one or more of all of the foregoing acts or powers, or limited as to time or in any other respect as my attorney shall deem proper.

This Power of Attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing her own estate.

The rights, powers and authority of said attorney herein granted shall commence and be in full force and effect immediately and the same shall remain in full force and effect thereafter until I have revoked this Power of Attorney by written instrument recorded in the public records of the County aforesaid or the attorney has resigned by delivery to me in writing a copy of resignation and recording the original in the public records of the County aforesaid.

No loss or damage accruing to the principal's estate as a result of the exercise or failure to exercise of any discretion herein vested in the attorney shall be charged or imputed to the attorney except for such loss or damage as may result from bad faith or gross negligence in the exercise of the attorney's discretion.
