KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

THAT I, KATHERINE DUKAS, have made, constituted and appointed and by these presents, do make, constitute and appoint GEORGE J. DUKAS, as my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my name, place and stead to ask, demand, sue for, receive and recover of and from all corporations, associations and persons whatsoever, all and every sum or sums of money due and owing, or that may become due and owing to me on any and every account, whether due or to become due, and give receipts for the same or give discharges; to sign any bond, deed, obligation, contract or other paper, to endorse promissory notes, and the same to renew from time to time; to draw upon any bank or banks or any corporations, associations, or individuals for any sum or sums of money that may be to my credit, or which I may be entitled to receive whether held jointly or otherwise, as I might or could do; to sell any part or parts of my real or personal estate, or any interest which I may have in any real or personal estate, wheresoever situated, to make all necessary deeds and conveyances thereof, with all necessary covenants, warranties and assurances, and to sign, seal, acknowledge and deliver same; and to do all such other acts, matters and things in relation to all or any part of or interest in any property belonging to me, or my estate affairs, or business, of any kind or description, in the State of Virginia or elsewhere, as I myself might or could do if acting personally. And I hereby ratify and confirm all lawful acts done by my said attorney-in-fact by virtue hereof.

This power of attorney shall not terminate on the disability of the principal and all power and authority vested in the attorney-in-fact or agent by the power of attorney or other writing shall continue and be exercisable by the attorney-in-fact or agent on behalf of the principal notwithstanding any subsequent disability.
