I

A hearing was held before me on November 30, 1983, pursuant to Notice of Motion and Motion praying that the Defendant be held in default pursuant to Affidavit of Default filed by the attorney for the Plaintiff in this matter, or in the alternative, praying for summary judgment because the documents show on their face a defect in the jurisdiction of the Arkansas court.

I find that the Defendant is in default in that no Answer was served upon the attorney for the Plaintiff as is required by §15-31-20, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976.

Even though I have found as a matter of fact that the Defendant is in default, and, therefore, the Plaintiff is entitled to the relief requested, I further have examined the document which the Defendant has caused to be recorded in the Office of the RMC for Greenville County in Deed Book 1149 at Page 789. This decree is a decree emanating from Pulaski County, Arkansas, attempting to deal with property situate within the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina. I find that the Court had no jurisdiction to deal with property located within the County of
