

in the City of Richmond, that the latter Company is in default and within thirty days after the service of such notice upon the President or other chief officer of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company as aforesaid, the Air Line Company shall have the right, and it shall be its duty, through its officers and agents, if such default shall continue, to resume possession, control and management of all its roads, track, buildings, engines and cars and other property, and of all of the business connected with said road as fully as if this contract had never been made. All the payments herein provided for bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, from the day on which they become due until paid.

Seventh. - It is expressly understood and agreed by the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, that the failure on its part to make payments within ten days after the notice of default aforesaid has been left at its office in the City of Richmond, shall, at the option of the Air Line Company, be taken and held to be a dissolution of this contract, and that it will, at the expiration of thirty days from service of said notice, surrender all the property of the said Air Line Company, together with all the improvements, renewals, additions and betterments which may have been made by the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company. That all the balances due the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company at the time of the service of said notice of default, from earnings of the Air Line Company, it is expressly agreed shall revert to and be payable only to the Air Line Company, but that all the debt incurred by the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, other than the current wages due the employees on the Air Line road, shall be debts of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, which it expressly covenants and agrees to pay, whether in possession of the property of the Air Line Company or not. And in addition to any sum which may be paid as herein provided, as compensation for any decrease in the value of the property of the Air Line Company, the Richmond and Danville Company covenants and agrees that it will satisfy all claims and judgments which may exist against said Air Line Company or its property at the time of the resumption of the possession
