

It is understood and agreed that should the mortgagor sell any standing timber from the above described premises, during the term of this mortgage, all proceeds from such sale or sales of standing timber will be applied to the reduction of the principal balance then remaining due on this mortgage.