"All installments of principal and interest of this note shall bear interest after the due date at the rate of seven (7%) per cent. per annum.

"Upon failure to pay an installment of principal and interest of this note within thirty days after due, or upon failure to comply with any of the conditions or requirements in the mortgage securing this note, then the remaining installments of interest and principal secured by said mortgage shall at once become due and payable, at the option of the legal holder hereof.

"The makers and endorsers severally waive demand, presentment, protest and notice of protest and expressly agree that this note, or any payment hereunder, may be extended from time to time without in any way affecting the liability of the makers and endorsers hereof.

"By giving payee of this note 60 days' advance written notice, privilege is given the payor after 12 months from date to make additional payments on the principal of this indebtedness on any date when interest becomes due and payable in an amount not to exceed $67,500.00, including obligatory payments required during this loan year. Additional payments in excess of $67,500.00 may be made during the 13th month through the 60th month by paying a premium of 2% of the additional amount so prepaid, during the 61st month through the 108th month by paying a premium of 1% of the additional amount so prepaid. After the 108th month prepayments may be made without premium. Provided further that such payments shall be for the exact amount of such portion of any consecutive number of the ensuing monthly payments as would be applied to principal if these monthly payments were made when due."
